1. I talked with [REDACTED] along the lines you suggested this afternoon. I mentioned that Dave was concerned with the problem of the Soviet Space Treaty but that he was out of town and would be back on Monday. I asked [REDACTED] if the answer could wait until then. He said by all means he thought it best to wait until Dave got back, determine his views on the impact of the treaty, and at that point we would decide whether or not the Agency would reply to such a question. [REDACTED] promised to get this word to [REDACTED]

2. I'll call Dave Brandwein on Monday, and he can arrange an appropriate time to discuss this matter with you.
